

Parental involvement

Parents are the first educators of their young children. The aim of the setting is to support parents in their essential role. We will:

involve parents in shared record keeping about their own child, both formally and informally, ensuring that parents have access to all written records on their own children.

ensure that parents are given information on a regular basis about their child's progress and have an opportunity to discuss it with staff.

ensure that all parents have opportunities to contribute from their own skills, knowledge and interests to the activities of the group.

ensure that all new parents are aware of and can contribute to the group's systems and policies.

encourage parents on an individual basis to play an active part in the management of the group.

ensure that all parents are fully informed about meetings, conferences, workshops and training.

consult with families about the times of meetings to avoid excluding anyone.

hold meetings in venues which are accessible and appropriate for all.

welcome the contributions of parents, whatever form these may take.

make known to all parents the systems for registering queries, complaints or suggestions.

provide opportunities for parents to learn about the curriculum and about young children's learning, in the setting and at home.
